

Dr. Brenda B. Branic, Chair
Mrs. Bendorris White, Co-Chair

Financial Literacy Boot Camp

Introduction

The 2025 Financial Literacy Boot Camp was the fourth iteration of the workshop that educates our youth on the importance of good decisions regarding credit and character. The committee was chaired by Dr. Brenda B. Branick and co-chaired by Mrs. Bendorris White.

Introduction

Committee Members and Volunteers

Brenda B. Branic, PhD. Chair

Bendorris White, Co-Chair

Dee Huggins

Mary Ann Smith

Crissandra Elliott

Bendorris White

Brenda Branic

Doris Cochran

Cynthia Walters

Faith Palmer

Pamela Foster

Shirley H. Williams

Delores Bellinger

Cynthia Rivers

Brenda Mickens

Eleanor Squeak Savage

Rosilyn Outen

Cathy Seawright

Kimberly Johnson Scott

Sesame Brown

Eva Prioleau

Donors, Contributors, Partnerships

Donors

- Z's Cool Me Down Italian Ice
- Sandra Sims Jimmy Johns
- Chick-fil-A Two Notch Rd
- Optus Bank
- Columbia SC Alumnae Chapter
Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc

Contributors

- Optus Bank
- Navy Federal
- Gloria Graham Boyd
- Stedfast Christian Church
- Sarah Gay
- Crissandra Sims
- Elizabeth Taylor
- Cecily Maxwell

Partnerships

- Simply Wooderful, LLC
- ABACUS
- Richland Library
- Optus Bank
- Columbia SC Alumnae Chapter
Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc

Primary Goal

Educate middle school youth on the importance of financial literacy while creating an environment of imaginative and fun learning

Participants

Youth Registered

37 total
Eleven 6th graders
Ten 7th graders
Eight 8th graders
Eight 9th graders
15 Male
22 Female

Youth Attendees

32 Total
12 Male
20 Female

Supporters

12 partners,
donors, and supporters

Committee Members

12 committee
members

Volunteers

6 volunteers from the partnering
organization

Areas of Focus

Planning for Future Endeavors - Entrepreneurship /
Fraud Alerts

Budgeting and Finance / Saving vs. Spending

Understanding the Body of a Check

Money Matters

Photo Gallery

Photo Gallery

Photo Gallery

Photo Gallery

